You just drag and drop to indicate where you want to place ads on your blog. There is nothing to modify, no HTML knowledge required, no template to edit, nothing to integrate. Everything is done in a minute! It's that easy. Adwit Banner Manager will place your favorite advertising programs in the right location, without placement errors (wrong ad size, wrong display zone, special template...). Just let the system optimize the ad rotations and find the best random banner to maximize your revenues. ABM manages and optimizes all types of advertising campaigns (Google AdSense, affiliate programs, direct advertising,...) You can use it for your other Websites by connecting to our more advanced Adwit-express pro manager. You will benefit from advanced live statistics and a wide range of ad formats (Text ads, Slides, In-text ads,...).
