$83.26 billion! If you gasped at this humongous stat, it is right for you to enter the cryptonomy. The number reflects the daily trading volume of Binance, the world's biggest platform for buying and selling digital currencies, tokens, as well as NFTs. With more than 386 listed coins, the popular exchange has made massive progress since its launch in July 4 years ago. Entrepreneurs can also launch a crypto exchange platform with whitelabel Binance clone.
