Censura is the most robust and flexible reviews and rating engine available on the market today. Censura provides an unparalleled level of content value and site impact rating, as well as an unprecedented level of integration within existing community platforms, including XenForo, vBulletin, Invision Power Board, phpBB and SMF. Drive traffic and content to your site by empowering your visitor and users with the ability to voice their opinions. Customise your reviews site with complete control over the look and feel via Censura's template engine. Edit the language of your site with full UTF-8 international character support. Search engine friendly URLs with complete control over the styling. Flexible ratings system, customisable on a per-category basis. Why stick with just 5 stars for your reviews? Powerful, object orientated codebase specifically written for PHP 5.2+
