Circular Countdown is a jQuery plugin that comes with many powerful features, it's very easy to skin with any color or image. Easy to setup and integrate in any project. Features included: Responsive design. Options are configurable via JavaScript. You can change timer type to countdown or countup. Supports client-side or server-side (unix timestamp) time. Simple and clean interface. Resizable width, height, font size and circles thickness. Easy font and color change from the plugin options. Show or hide days, hours, minutes or seconds. Texts can be changed via parameters. Supports multiple instances. Uses HTML5 Canvas. Works in IE, Firefox, Safari, Opera, Chrome. IE7 and 8 doesn't support canvas, but the plugin still works and displays the time remaining. Callback function support after the counting finishes. Help file is included.
