Another suite of 6 applets derived from the same family as The Trinity Christmas applet suite; this one uses a view of a venerable old clock that has served Stourbridge town for well over a century; the image also takes in a part of town which dates back to the days of the Huguenot glassmakers: a festively lit section of the lower highstreet with the halftimbered Mitre Inn in the foreground. All six applets use a set of common components in differing ways; All six use the same Ice font in an upward scrolling message; three are plain, and three include a running fairground animation - there should be something here for everyone.
