CountLink is a script that will update a log file for tracking the number of hits for any link on your website by place a link: <http://www.yoursite.com/yourdir/countlink.cgi?address.htm>. It adds a count to the link listed in the log file, keeps the log in order from greatest to least hits, and then autoforwards the user to <http://address.htm>. No input is needed from the web surfer, the interface is seamless.
