This PHP Currency Conversion script comes complete, ready to go. Just change the layout to suit your own site needs and that's all there is to it. Features Include: 1. Live Currency Conversion Calculator 2. Currency Conversion Charts updated daily from the european central bank, up to date news feeds, individual currency pages with interactive charts and currency news. All news related content used rss2html and is incorporated. All currency data is provided by the european central bank and yahoo finance. As long as your server or site is capable of running php, that is the only requirement.
