The e-Classifieds Free Edition allows you to quickly set up your own classifieds section using easily configurable categories and other variables. All pages are generated dynamically using your settings, so there is no need to manually edit any HTML files. Users can post and delete their own ads. The admin can delete any ad posted by any user and can even delete entire categories at a time. In addition, the Free Edition shares the pleasing appearance and friendly, easy-to-use interface of our commercial versions. Available in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, and many other languages.
