Quotepro is pleased to release an enterprise level solution for Insurance Carriers seeking a web presence to compete in the internet marketplace. Let our eCarrier technology power your company's consumer facing website and agent Portal Website allowing your customers to quote, make payments and renew policies online. eCarrier is available as a snap-in component to your current management system or as a full, feature rich carrier management system. Quotepro can web enable your company with online policy management, claims management, rating and more. We have spent years developing a custom domain-specific language (DSL) for insurance underwriting leading to quick and accurate insurance rating and simple rate changes.
