Ektron eWebEditPro, the leading multi-language, browser-based, WYSIWYG Web content authoring tool offers business users a familiar editing toolbar for authoring content without needing to know HTML -- which broadens the organization's authoring base and lowers costs. With Ektron eWebEditPro, Webmasters and IT professionals maintain stylistic control over their Web content, yet they no longer need to perform simple routine editing tasks. This cross-platform tool works with leading content management solutions and all dynamic Web application servers. Replaces a text area field.
