Vertical Site is a Java/J2EE based Web Content Management solution (CMS) that is fast, easy to use and affordable. The solution combines both a portal framework and a structured content management system in one solution. The product is highly customizable and based on open standard like J2EE, XML and XSLT. Vertical Site runs on both commerical and free application servers, LDAP directories and databases. Enonic's customers include large multinational companies such as Toyota, ASSA ABLOY, Burger King, T.G.I. Friday's, Orion Pharma, Channell Commercial, VingCard and North American Scientific.
