Our community builder application lets you build your own dating site or social networking script with no programming knowledge. Has own AJAX instant messenger, integrates with Flashchat, vBulletin phpBB2, smf and others. It is a seo friendly php script with many social features for user communities. We can design original skins for your community site based on your needs. Version 1.13, coming out soon, improves the networking support and offers innovative features, not present in other scripts.
