The Ezboxx portal is powerful online community system built on the highly acclaimed Megabbs forum software. Ezboxx enables webmasters to very easily create a dynamic and vibrant community website, full of features and surprises for all visitors and members. The open source ideal of free, unrestricted community development is what Ezboxx provides. With advanced features like The Plugin Manager, Associations and Unions, providing the tools and the performance needed to develop unique, scalable portals. Ezboxx of course comes equipped with all the generic features. Articles, FAQ's, Files, Image Albums, Links Directory, Polls, Forums, etc etc. But Ezboxx also introduces a framework where all of these moduels are able to interact with each other and newly created plugins / modules can tap into this API as well. The Comunnity is equiped and trained in the use of these features and tools via the Forums. Ezboxx is one of the first portals to truely empower it's webmasters and community and that is what OpenSource is all about.
