FlashMaster Creative is a multimedia screensaver creator and is a must for any multimedia professional or flash designer to own, FlashMaster creates screensavers from Macromedia Flash, Director, Adobe Live Motion and other top design software apps. It is simple to use, making the process of building fully interactive multimedia screensavers quick and painless. Simply create your screensavers using your favourite design/web technology tools and use FlashMaster to convert them into working screensavers packaged in an executable set-up file ready for distribution. Whether it be on the Internet, CD-ROM or any other forms of computer media, you are free to distribute as many copies your screensaver(s) as you wish, with the unlimited distribution license, which you get as standard with this version of FlashMaster.
