guiSTUFF is a Nuke add-on that allow your users to generate their site's design on-the-fly. Users can create shockwave flash bars, flash status bars, tooltips, CSS based navigation bars and a whole heap more, well there are 12 tools in total. All this can be done without any knowledge of Flash, or CSS etc. Basically all the free tools that are available from <http://www.guistuff.com> will be available direct from your site for your users to use without the hassle of having to register at guistuff.com. This add-on is compatible with both phpNuke(v5) and all versions of Post-Nuke.
