A personalized welcome message can pleasantly surprise visitor while visiting your blog site. A simple message of "Hello buddy from Canada" can make a difference of how they react to your blog site. This is why the plugin was created for. It enables you to display the visitors' IP Address, Country, Country-Code (2 digits), Region, City, ISP and the Country Flag icon from where they visited your blog site. Not only that, it allows you to customize your welcome message in any way you like.
