Job Control can be used as a job site, or as a way for a business to list their open positions. Each employer receives their own logon and there is a separate logon for the administrator. New in this version is the ability for users to create and manage their resume. With their saved resume a user can apply for open positions. In addition recruiters can search resumes to find suitable candidates. The system uses Cascading Style Sheets for added customizing. Easy to install and complete instructions are provided. Support: PWP Technology, Inc fully warrants the installation and performance of this program. Free updates are included in the price and email technical support is provided. Database: MS Access or MS SQL
