Whenever you need a full featured slider image rotator or you need a simple ad banner, liJQuery Image slider will do the job with ease! Have you ever thought about having slider/banner and ads on one page and all they are JavaScript driven? Imagine how cool it is! You can have one JavaScript file and multiple sliders. Forget about the ugly animated GIFs or Flash ads. If you already have one li slider, just add another unordered list and initialize the new slider / banner. Done! You have an additional slider or ad banner. Maybe you need to update your banner? Maybe the show dates changed or the product price in your ad has change? No problem, simply upload the new image with the same name, and you have a brand new ad. It is more than cool! Save time, save work and just be creative. Easy to Use and Modify!
