This script allows you to create your own 'best of' web site link engine with as many categories and subcategories as you want. The user interface and output interface are super intuitive, nice looking, and efficient. All links can be rated based on a 5 star rating system and the links with the highest rating will be displayed first (all links that have a 5 star rating will shuffle through the top order). Also features a built-in search engine that can search by category or through the entire database.
