If you wish to start a multivendor market place for books, then you can choose our Readymade Book Store Website Script as it engulfs all the key ingredients to start a successful online book store. The script allows selling both the new as well as old books across the globe and is flexible to import books from multiple vendors and in turn gain double benefit. Firstly through the commission percentage from other vendors and secondly the customer retention as they get what they want from a single platform. Online Book Shop Script is integrated with social media so users can view their favorite books on social media as well as login through the social media websites. Book lovers can post their reviews. You can drive revenue from the banner ads, commission percentage from other vendors and sale of books. For more details: <http://www.inetsolution.com/downloads/book-shop-script/>
