Our new reataurants site is a fantastic tools to start a classifieds business to allow restaurant owners to create and advertise their website What does it do? It allows you to run a classifieds website where your users will be able to create a profile, and automatically generate their restaurant's website. Upon the profile'S creation process, users will be able to create restaurant menus, coupons, upload a main page image and logo, add meta tags and more. At the end of the process, they will get a URL which will point to their website. In fact the same script can be adapted to any other business where your customer are in need of a website Customizations can be offered for this script; for customizations, contact us for a quote!
