phpVID is a video sharing software which lets you run a site where users can share their videos with their friends and family and online users just like youtube. phpVID can be described as one of the best youtube clone or metacafe clone or break clone. phpVID has extensive features to make your site a success from start. The videos get converted to flash when they are uploaded and your logo can be placed on the player so when users use the code from your site the name of your site appears on all sites that code is used. The software also has groups section where users can create groups and share their thoughts with each other. The integrated ajax modules make it easier for users to browse the site and add comments on videos or see a particular users videos. We have also added an extensive admin panel which will let you manage the site easily. Multiple language support lets you run site in any language. Please feel free to contact us at any time, if you have any questions.
