This is a script that helps web masters get the latest news from different sources. You can setup unlimited rss feeds and unlimited RSS feeds sources and the script grabs them and shows your visitors any amount of news you want. The news feeds are placed on your web site by this tool using plain html. You can customize it very easy using CSS. Using our Random RSS Feeds Tool you keep your web site updated with fresh content everytime a user comes to your web site and everytime Googlebot visits your web site.
