Short Url Service with Url Tracker can be one of the most useful tools for any online marketer. Most of the online marketers don't want to send emails with URLs that break making the recipient have to go through the work of copying and pasting it into their browser window. Most of them don't want to use one program to create a tiny url and then having to access another one to track it. This will allow you to add as many URL's to shorten as you want and provides you with detailed stats which gives you full control over the settings. This script contains an excellent ad selling feature for you by which you can sell top and bottom sponsor ads at your website and make good money from it. This script is easy to install and comes with a Free Installation so if you need any help in installations we will install it for no extra cost. And the best thing is that if you will buy it now you will get this script for just $99 only. *****
