UBER for Mechanics? If you are stranded in the middle of nowhere, and need to find a mechanic to fix your car, isn't it tiresome to walk randomly in the hope of chancing upon a garage? To help remedy this situation, Uber for Mechanics offers a simple, yet reliable solution. The app works in a simple manner. The user logs in, enters his location and clicks on the "Get me a Mechanic" button. Following this, the payment is made via a pre-registered Paypal account. Then the user is assigned the nearest mechanic who can arrive as soon as possible and fix the vehicle. The mechanic's arrival time is notified to the user in advance. After the vehicle has been fixed, the user can rate the mechanic's service. Does that sound good? Now imagine building a prospective business around providing this service to stranded travelers. Uber for Mechanics will help travelers reach out to mechanics easily, and will drum up more business for the mechanics. It's a win-win!
