This is not just another video sharing YouTube Clone script. This is a one of a kind video streaming site that will allow you to create a profitable video streaming site almost instantly with over 3,000 movies and 80,000 TV Episodes Automatically embedded from Hulu's Free Section. Right now, cable and satellite bills are so high that more than ever people are trying to find a free alternative to watch their shows and movies. This will give you a chance to capitalize on that demand and provide users what they want. This powerful platform is very simple to use and doesn't even require coding experience to get started. We also provide an installation service if you would like as well. We also have a support forum to help you along the way. Check us out on our Web Site and I hope you give us a try.
