Video Testimonials is the next, innovative step in the advertising development. People are fed up with traditional ad – it is obtrusive and annoying. Testimonial is more reliable – nothing is more reassuring than customer's obvious endorsement of a product or service. Let your customers say good things about you and your products – it looks more persuasive than when you do it yourself. Video Testimonials are really attention-getting and attractive – people are curious about other customers' personal experience, and would rather click-and-watch a video than surf store pages. Let your customers tell of their experience with your products and thereby make your store content more appealing!
