Yalst ("yet another live support tool") is a powerful chatting tool that integrates easily with any Web site. The highlights are visitor and operator initiated chats, audio/video chats, visitor monitoring and tracking with alarm functionality, form monitoring, file transfers in both directions during chats, plugin-free co-browsing, desktop app, marketing tools (push banners, URLs, messages, and customized surveys), web measurement (with many interactive charts), ad-tracking of campaigns, conversion tracking, departments, a FAQ database, a customized contact form (if chat is offline), chat between operators, and an application programming interface for deep Web site integration.
