Open-Realty is an open-source web-based real estate listing management application. Open-Realty has been the first choice in real estate website solutions since 2003. Open-Realty provides easy installation, integrated blogging, lead capture, search engine optimization, highly customizable templates, virtual tour support, advanced search capabilities, and many other features. Combine this with open source add-ons, such as our MLS RETS data importer and advanced Google map integrations, and you have all tools needed to have a top real estate website in your market.
